

I believe the sale of this satellite was made more due to a family dispute than a business decision. HDTV is the future and its development will surely slow if this sale is approved. Rainbow DBS is committed to the future of HDTV and should be allowed to keep the satellite and continue in developing the future.